

Here's Another Sky Parade; These Are Tiny Models Made by Elkhart Air Enthusiast

Dick Frederick learns about aviation not only by flying real planes, but also by the building of model machines of many types. Represented in his collection of models are the planes used in the Balbo flight, the German Do-X, and other famous ships. Can you pick them out?